

Imagine That

Matthew 18:2-3

Jesus invited a little child to stand among them. 3 “Truly I tell you, ”He said, “unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

To enter God’s Kingdom best, we must have the faith of a child.

To know God’s Kingdom best requires the imagination of a child-like faith.

Ephesians 3:20-21

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, 21 to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.

James 4:2

...you have not, because you ask not.

The imaginative faith of a child begins with us considering the generosity of the cross.

Romans 8:32

Since he did not spare even his own Son but gave him up for us all, won’t he also give us everything else?

John 1:12

But to all who believed him and accepted him, he gave the right (power) to become children of God.

The most powerful thing God can give you is the faith of a child.

With the faith of a child there is no limit to what we can receive from God.

Imagine that!
