

Remember

Part Three - Remember What God Has Done

We are to remember what God has done.

Psalm 143:5

I remember the days of long ago; I meditate on all your works and consider what your hands have done.

What This Reminder Achieves

1. Remembering what God has done proves God's faithfulness.

Deuteronomy 7:9

Understand, therefore, that the LORD your God is indeed God. He is the faithful God who keeps his covenant for a thousand generations and lavishes his unfailing love on those who love him and obey his commands.

2. Remembering what God has done helps us forfeit preconceived ideas.

Isaiah 55:9

For just as the heavens are higher than the earth, so my ways are higher than your ways and my thoughts higher than your thoughts.

3. Remembering what God has done makes us thankful.

Psalm 103:2

Let all that I am praise the LORD; may I never forget the good things he does for me.

4. Remembering what God has done provides us with faith for what God will do.

2 Corinthians 1:10

And he did rescue us from mortal danger, and he will rescue us again. We have placed our confidence in him, and he will continue to rescue us.

A great way to remember what God has done is by telling the story again and again.

Exodus 13:14

In the future, when your son asks you, 'What does this mean?' you are to tell him, 'With a mighty hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.'
